THE HISTORY OF OUR OWN TIMES.

INTRODUCTION.

The documents respecting the late negotiations with the Ministers of G. B. near our government, are now before the public; at least, so much of them as the administration when they were managing the business, intended for publication. I think this a proper time for the satisfaction of the nation, to give a short history of the whole of this mysterious business. In doing this, I shall not attempt to give a decided opinion on the policy of the administration. It shall be my task only to expose the machinery of this great hocus-pocus affair; to let the people view the system that moves the puppets, and see the transactions behind the curtain, that they may be able to judge of the correctness of the exhibition. I believe it will be evident, to every candid reader, who will examine into the circumstances of the case, that it has been, and still is, the policy of our government to avoid a settlement with Great Britain. All the plans of the administration go to protract the present situation of our country, and to hold us, if possible, in this dreadful state of suspense, until peace shall be made in Europe. They then hope the belligerents will again permit humble neutrals to enjoy the greatest part of the trade of the world. In order to continue this state of affairs, and to make the people easy in their situation, it will appear from an examination of facts, that our government have descended to stratagems, which, had they been practised by the British, would have been considered unwarrantable deceptions. As I said before, I shall give no decided opinion at this time, on the value and correctness of this policy. It may, for aught I know, be the true course our government ought to pursue. In one point of view it has succeeded to admiration; it has settled the officers of government firm in their seats, which a few months since were very much shaken. As it has answered their purposes, as respects themselves individually, it may possibly answer the ends of the nation.—Honesty was once the best policy. But that old maxim is now out of date, and cheating and deceptive policy may now be preferable to honest and candid. Yet that the people may be enabled to judge which is most agreeable and most useful to them, I shall proceed to my history.

LAW CASE.

JAMAICA, SS.

A quantity of American produce has been heretofore introduced and deposited at the port of St. Jago de Cuba, the property of merchants citizens of the U. States.

On Thursday, the 21st of Sept. the Spanish sch'r Maria Louisa, Baptiste Michilli, master, arrived in Kingston harbor, with a cargo consisting of 80 barrels herrings, 137 barrels pilot bread on account and risk of Messrs. Joel West & Co. resident merchants of Baltimore, and citizens of the United States of America, consigned to Messrs. Wilkinson and Gilbanks, of this city. The bill of lading by which these facts appear, is left herewith.

Upon the arrival of the sch'r Maria Louisa, Mr. Gilbanks, one of the consignees, attended at the custom house, with a manifest in the usual manner, but instead of being permitted to an entry, one of the custom-house officers was sent on board the sch'r, who seized her and the cargo, which latter was immediately landed. During the former American embargo Spanish vessels did import American produce from Spanish ports, and no obstruction was given to that trade.

The seizure of this vessel and cargo, if lawful, is an evil which may be extended to many others under similar circumstances, which are daily expected to arrive at this island; and in consequence of the renewal of the American non-intercourse, may affect not only the individuals immediately interested, but the community at large, by stopping the means of procuring necessary such articles, through this channel. Mr. Gilbanks therefore requests your advice and opinion, as well respecting the present seizure, as to what may be done to obviate the evil in future.

Is this vessel and cargo liable to seizure and confiscation, for the breach of any laws or orders in council? And if strictly liable to seizure, any circumstances or means, by application to the governor or otherwise, to obtain the release of this vessel and cargo? And should she not be liable to seizure, what redress have Wilkinson and Gilbanks, or Joel West & Co. for such seizure? If this seizure is legal, are there any, and what steps can be adopted, to obtain legal permission for the importation into this island, of American produce in Spanish vessels; or such license as would protect them from seizure whilst so employed?

Your advice generally, on this subject, is required.

ANSWER.

I had some doubts whether this vessel and cargo came under any of the orders in council. But upon consideration, those doubts are in a great measure removed. The case is certainly hard, and arises entirely out of the peculiar situation of the commercial relations of the United States.

The question is, whether a Spanish vessel may import a legal cargo belonging to American merchants into a British port in the West Indies.

I am inclined to think, that such a trade is protected by the 2d, 3d, and 4th sections of the order in council of the 4th July, 1808. The 3d section gives all Spanish vessels free admission into British ports, as before the war. The 4th declares that all Spanish vessels shall be suffered to carry on any trade, now considered by his majesty to be lawfully carried on in neutral ships.

There can be no doubt but that this cargo might have been imported in an American vessel, both under the Order in Council of the 11th April, 1808, (which is not repealed by the late Order of the 24th May, 1809,) and the existing proclamation. The 4th section, which I have quoted, gives the trials; in both cases, the British almost equally sacrifice the monopoly and carriage of provisions, and it was compelled to do so in order to induce the Americans to continue the supply, notwithstanding the embargo and non-intercourse laws. It was obvious that this supply could scarcely be carried on in American bottoms, but it might in Spanish vessels, therefore this privilege was confined to the latter—still, however, a doubt remains whether the present Court will consider itself bound by these Orders in Council, which are certainly in violation of the navigation act, and the validity of which has been questioned more than once by the present Judge.

I recollect a case in which British goods had been imported in this island in an American vessel to Cuba—she was detained and libelled. I considered that both were protected by the Order in Council, of the 11th Nov. 1807, which declares that all British manufactures should be restored, on whatever voyage bound, and to whoever the property belonged. This Judge took two days to consider the question—and after much hesitation came to this resolution, that his Majesty in Council could neither alter nor modify an act of Parliament. The vessel and cargo were condemned. The imperative obligation of the Orders is not questioned in the Prize Court—but that Court is especially constituted by his Majesty, and in some measure under his control and will only. And if the Court decided on the Orders to which I have referred, both vessel and cargo will be acquitted. If, on the navigation act, their fate is inevitable, it is too late now to make any application to the governor.

(Signed)

A. WHYTE.

NEW-YORK, Dec 12.

From Tonningen.—The brig Frederick, captain Gulen, from Tonningen for Boston has put into Marblehead. She sailed from Tonningen 12th October, at which time markets were generally rising, in consequence of the peace between France and Austria. We understand from Capt. Gulen, that the terms of the peace had not been officially received there; but that it was rumored, one of them limited the number of troops to be kept on foot by the emperor Francis.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 12.

Capt. Chatty reports, that the city of St. Domingo is now entirely under the command of the Spaniards, the British having left it; that the American produce having poured in from the other islands was low—flour at 8 dollars, and other articles in proportion. That the Spaniards, as well as the rest of the island, seemed rather in a quiet, undisturbed state.

Yesterday arrived, ship Hannah, Clements, 50 days from Londonderry, with 50 or 60 passengers. On her passage she fell in with the British sloop of war Atlanta, the captain of which ordered a few of the young men to come on board his ship, to learn the use of artillery and small arms.

Extract of a letter from St. Barts, October 3.

"A little schooner of 14 tons, and only two men, called the Thomas & Henry, has this morning arrived here from Boston.—The best fish is selling here at 1 dollar 50 cents per bhd. flour 7 dolls. superfine, pork 14, and all other articles in proportion.—As to fish, I assure you any person may have bhd. of them gratis, if they will unpack it, and return the casks broke up into shooks; but it cannot be got rid of on these conditions. If you were to witness the immense quantity of American produce sacrificed here daily, I believe you would be more convinced of the folly and madness of what is termed the policy of the American government."

December 13.

We at a late hour last evening, received London papers to the 22d and Liverpool to the 23d. On a hasty perusal, we find only the following:

LONDON, October 22.

Yesterday we received a letter from our squadron in Basque Roads by a victualler arrived at Plymouth. The French ships in the Charante had repaired the damage which they sustained in our late attack, and were in apparent readiness for sea.

The books at Lloyd's have lately exhibited an unusual number of entries in the Change.

Ministers are resolved on the retention of Walcheren, and the commissary's department is now engaged in contracts for the supply of various articles of provisions during the ensuing winter.

It is currently reported in the political circles that the ministerial arrangements which related to Mr. Dundas Saunders, and that gentleman does not come into office. The cause of this change is not stated.

The great encouragement given to the late Indigo sales, has induced the company to send out orders for a considerable increase in their ensuing season's investment, with particular injunctions to pay the strictest attention to the cultivation and improvement of that valuable article. The pepper contracts for the ensuing season will be on a very reduced scale.

The last cargoes of hemp are said to have sustained damage in the voyage, which has rendered much of it unserviceable for maritime purposes.

The late accounts from our army in Portugal are by no means of a pleasing nature. We are assured from an highly respectable quarter, that the total effective force under Lord Wellington, did not on the 1st of the present month, exceed 15,000 men, and that his army was daily diminishing by disease. Marshal Soult had made some movements, which were considered as indicating an intention on his part to attack us.

[Austria again partitioned, on paper.]

Eugene Beauharnois, the viceroy of Italy is, according to a report prevalent at Heligoland, to be king of Austria. This new monarchy is, it is said, to comprise the two Austrias, Sicily, Corinthia, Carniola, the Litorale, Dalmatia, Salzburg, and the Tyrol; Bavaria to receive Switzerland in lieu of the latter province.

[Accounts from Spain and Portugal not so late as by direct arrivals.]

BALTIMORE, December 14.

Latest from Europe.

By the arrival of the ship Pallas, West, in 39 days from Tonningen, which she left the 2d of November, we have been politely favored with the following extracts from the latest Hamburg papers.

[American.]

EXTRACTS

From the Hamburg Correspondent of 27th October.

Extract of a letter from Vienna, dated October 14th.

"This moment was published the following extra Gazette."

"This day about noon, his excellency, the president, received the following letter from his excellency, the governor general of Austria.

"Mr. President—I haste to communicate to you the following copy of an order of the day; from which your excellency will learn the pleasing news that the peace has been signed this forenoon, at 9 o'clock. I am ordered to make it known to the public by a salute of one hundred cannon. You will please to have it announced by the sound of trumpet. I hereby authorize you to have the order of the day, which I have the honor to transmit to you herewith published in hand bills in both languages.

"I renew, Mr. President, the assurance of my sentiments of high personal consideration.

(Signed) The General of Division,
Count of the Empire and Governor,
F. ANDREOSSI.

ORDER OF THE DAY.

Schoenbrunn, 14th October.

The peace was signed this forenoon at 9 o'clock, by count Champagny, minister of the exterior of his majesty the emperor of the French, and king of Italy, and prince Lichtenstein, plenipotentiary of his majesty the emperor of Austria. The marshal will announce this news by salutes of artillery.

Prince of Neufchatel, major general.
(Signed) ALEXANDER.

Extract of another letter from Vienna, dated October 14th.

"Prince Lichtenstein set off in great haste for the Castle Lotis, to communicate to his majesty, the emperor Francis, the treaty of peace which had just been signed. The ratification of this instrument will be exchanged without delay.

"It is supposed that the particulars of the peace between the emperors Napoleon and Francis, will first appear in the Monitor.

"Malzel who exhibited his mechanical musical instruments before the emperor Napoleon, has received from him, a douceur of 150 Napoleondors."

Strasbourg, 16th October.

This morning the pleasing news was received here of the conclusion of peace.—The colors were displayed on the Mueuse, and the following was published.

"Inhabitants of Strasbourg!

"The peace has been signed on the 14th inst. This news will be the more dear to you, as you are indebted for it to the paternal goodness of his imperial and royal majesty, who would have it made known without delay, to his good city of Strasbourg."

"May we soon be enabled to express in his sacred person, the lively feelings of our profound gratitude."

Letter from his imperial and royal majesty, to the general of division, Desbureaux.

Mr. General of Division, DESBUREAUX—Make known, by the telegraphs, to the empress, that the peace has been signed on the 14th inst. at 9 A. M. between Mr. De Champagny, and prince Lichtenstein. Extend this news throughout your division, and in particular, make it known to the mayor of my good city of Strasbourg.

FRANKFORT, Sept. 15.

The Prince Primate has published the following edict:

"Charles, by the Grace of God, etc.

I. Good laws are founded on reason, and reason in a moral sense, is the opinion of justice and injustice which the creator has imprinted in the heart of man in indelible characters. When the sophisms, passions and prejudices, mislead the mind of man, time dissipates the error; but the principles of justice are eternal. The false idea of the Romans about slavery exists no more; but their luminous conceptions of real rights will remain for ever, and are the unerring guides of an enlightened jurisprudence.

II. Every man has the unalienable right of knowing the laws by which his actions and pretensions are to be governed. A code in the common language, or a translation of a code adopted as law, procures this essential advantage.

III. The fundamental principles of justice and injustice are general, and since they are such, they are applicable to particular cases. Different codes, ed by parrot German language, knowledge nites the m complete. varian code spirit of Rom The laws

A ge, on a transla- y, procures this principles of jus- eral, and since icable to partiwar cases. It would be useless to form different codes of laws in every state bound- ed by narrow limits. There are in the German language, codes of civil law of ac- knowledged merit. The Prussian code uni- nites the merit of precision and of being complete. The author of the ancient Ba- varian code was impressed with the true spirit of Roman jurisprudence.

The laws of Austria cut short a useless length of proceedings. But amongst all the codes in existence, that of his imperial and royal majesty the emperor Napoleon, com- mands all the advantages which are pecu- liar to each.

IV. First advantage is, that the great- est French lawyers have agreed in its adop- tion under the greatest man of the age.— The name of his highness the Prince-arch- chancellor Portalis, Preambien, Troucher, and of so many other excellent persons suf- fice to prove the truth. The discussions of the council of state, of the conservative se- nate, of the tribunals of justice, of the le- gislative body, of the courts of appeal, have matured this work.

True, Germany in every age has produ- ced excellent lawyers. The exalted merit of Bolmer, Leiser, Thomasius, Ludewig, Moeckius, Heinecke, Stricke, &c. is ac- knowledged. At this time, the Goennors, Almedingen, Svidensticker, Lacharic, Fa- ch, Grellman, Meister, Hugo, as well as many others have shone conspicuous in the field of science. But as it might otherwise be excellent in the constitution of confeder- ated sovereignties, it would be difficult to bring together in one place lawyers residing in different sovereignties, to combine their labors for the completion of a code; and it is this combination of enlightened men who have perfected such a work.

V. The second advantage which the Na- poleon code possesses, is, that the discus- sions in the council of state, relative to the laws of which it is composed, are published and the work of the careful and prudent compiler Loche exhibits the spirit of the Napoleon code in a luminous point of view.

VI. The third advantage which the Na- poleon code exhibits, is the establishment of assemblies of kindred and of justices of the peace. These two institutions have a happy effect in the maintenance of order and in the preservation of good morals.

VII. These motives have determined the adoption of the Napoleon code in the Primal estate. The law will commence its operations on the first of May, 1810.

The German translation of professor Er- hard, of Leipzig, is provisionally adopted.

VIII. We reserve to ourselves to pub- lish successively the explications which will become necessary in the practical execution of this legislative code.

Done at Aschaffenburg, September 15, 1809.

Editorial Independence.—The following ex- cellent extract from the Brattleborough Re- porter, closes with a simile, at once original, ingenious and impressive:—

"We neither court, nor despise populari- ty, and never have, nor will we sacrifice a principle, or knowingly give currency to a falsehood, for the sake of acquiring that 'life in others breath' which is the supreme ob- ject of time serving politicians. We consider editors of newspapers as possessing an aw- ful degree of responsibility. They wield moral engines (if we may be allowed the expres- sion) of immense force, which are capable of shaking, weakening, and deranging, and per- haps in this country of overturning, the fabric of civilized society. If they bend to every breeze of public opinion, and are influenced by a thirst for popularity, instead of a desire to promote the interests of the people, they are treacherous guides, and dangerous ene- mies to their country. Such men may be compared to guide boards, turning upon swi- vels, shivering in every breeze, and veering to all points of the compass, yet placed for the direction of travellers in difficult and danger- ous paths, where a false step might prove fa- tal, and a wrong course leads to inevitable de- struction."

"The Prospect Before Us."—As it is now the prevailing opinion that War with both the great Belligerents is almost inevitable, we may expect to see Congress unceasingly apply themselves to putting the Country in such an efficient state of defence, as will comport with the dignity of a great and enterprising nation. The resources of those with whom we have to cope, it is true, are vast, and it will be necessary therefore, for us to oppose them in such a manner as to produce effect. From the "unprofitable contest of trying which can do the other the most harm," we must not shrink when once engaged. And as in the present horrible aspect of the world, it is impossible to calculate events, or conjecture how long a war may continue, we must determine one and all either to conquer triumphantly or per- ish nobly, for it would be no common war. In the wisdom of Congress the people now anx- iously place their confidence for protection. May their hopes not be disappointed.

POSTSCRIPT.

New-York, December 13.

Arrived, the ship Eliza-Ann, Porter, 34 days from Dublin. Left, brig Eliza, of Boston, for Norway, weighing anchor;— ship Alfred, Fisher, of Newburyport, for St. Ubes in 2 days; ship Rover, Glen of New York, for St. Ubes, ready. The ship Venus, Crocker, sailed for New York 21 days before; and in lat. 42, long. 59, 29, spoke her short of provisions, her sails torn and her pump choked. Nov. 10, lat. 49, was boarded by two French privateer schrs. 14 days from St. Maloes, who robbed capt. Porter of cabin stores and 10 bales of li- nens; would have sent the ship in had they not been short of provisions. The priva- teers had captured 6 vessels, two of which they burnt and the others sent in. They said Bonaparte had issued an order dated Oct. 14, to capture all vessels bound to or from English ports. They said Bony had gone to Spain. Nov. 12, lat. 49, 44, long. 11, was boarded by the French privateer brig Revenge L'Orient 1 days from St Ma- loes, and plundered of 2 bales of linen, pro- visions, &c.—then put on board 4 English prisoners belonging to the ship Sarah, Bris- towe, of London from the South Seas, which ship they sent to France.

Latest From England.

By the ship Eliza-Ann, in 33 days from Dublin, the editors of the New-York Ga- zette have received papers from London to the 4th, and Dublin to the 7th ult. They contain but little news.

The Windsor Castle Packet from New York arrived at Falmouth on the 20th of Oct. 20 days from Halifax.

The Duke of Kent Packet sailed f Falmouth for America on the 20th of Octo- ber.

Private letters, say the London papers, both from Germany and Holland, continue to speak confidently of Bonaparte's being a state of mental derangement.

A letter from Hamburg, inserted in a London paper of the 30th of October, says, "Bonaparte is, without doubt, out of his mind, and incapable of attending to any sort of public business. A gentleman has arrived here lately from Vienna, who gives us positive information of the fact. We have long suspected something of this kind, but we are now convinced. Bonaparte had been ill when the person to whom we are indebted for this information left the Da- nube, for some weeks, but not so violently as at present. His madness did not exhibit itself till he had been afflicted with a high fever for some time. We learn that he is about to be conveyed to France."

The duke of Portland, late first lord of the treasury, died on the 30 h of Octo- ber.

A letter from Dublin of the 6th of Nov. says, "The Packet has brought an account that an order in council is expected to ap- pear immediately in the Gazette, prohibi- ting the landing of American produce that has been landed or warehoused in any place since they left America, except from Bri- tish ships or American ships with English licences. This seems intended to drive you to your Embargo, which, from expe- rience, it is expected you cannot main- tain."

The Prince of Ponto-Corvo (Bernadotte) arrived at Augsburg Oct. 7, with a suite of TEN carriages!

The London papers mention the death of the second son of the Tippeco Sultan, whose funeral was of the most pompous descrip- tion.

The king of England has issued a pro- clamations, under date of Oct. 13, par- doning all seamen and mariners who have deserted, on surrendering themselves; and another proclamation of the 24th of Oct. offering a pardon to all deserters in the land service, who may surrender them- selves.

EXTRACTS.

LONDON, Oct. 24.

American papers to the 19th ult. came to hand yesterday. Mr. Jackson, the British ambassador, who had landed from on board the Afracaine frigate on the 30th of Aug. reached Washington on the 8th ult. where he was received by the secretary of state, the secretary to the treasury, and Mr. Erskine, as successor to the latter gen- tleman. The President however, was not expected before the end of the present month, and but little progress in Mr. Jack- son's mission was expected to take place un- til his arrival. It is stated in some of the American papers, but we hope without foundation, that our minister on his laud- ing, was treated with indignity by the po- pulace. The democratic writers are stren- uous in their support of the cause of France, and cry out for war with England; but un- less the American government be really de- termined upon war, we are inclined to hope that the mission of Mr. Jackson will produce a pacific result.

Sir George Macklin, who had undergone two examinations on the charge of having stolen a bank note at Hatchett's Hotel, be- longing to a Mr. Young, was brought up for a third examination. In answer to some interrogatories, he said, that he ob- tained his knighthood from Gustavus IV, of Sweden, for services in the Swedish ar- my, through the interest of his uncle, col. Williams, who was also in the military ser- vice of Sweden. On being asked if he had not represented himself as a clergyman in America, he replied in the affirmative, and said, he received his ordination at the hands of the Bishop of New York. On being asked about fighting a duel, which appeared in the newspapers some time since, he said it was perfectly true. This charge of felo- ny against the prisoner could not be sustain- ed; but he was committed to Tothil-fields upon the charge of entering the waiter's room at Hatchett's with intent to steal.

The flotilla at Boulogne and Calais, it is reported, is removing to the Scheldt, for the purpose of assisting in the threatened attack on Walcheren. We incline to doubt the statement, first from an opinion that the Boulogne flotilla is not fit for service, and secondly because none of these craft have been seen on their passage by our cruisers.

October 29.

Despatches were received this day from Lord Wellington as late as the 10th inst. at which time he was preparing to come home.

The princess Amelia is very ill of a liver complaint.

October 30.

We learn that Walcheren and Portugal are to be maintained and defended. More troops are ordered to be in readiness for embarkation.

Accounts from Hamburg state, that a battle has been fought between the Russian and Turkish armies, each 30,000 strong. The Turks were victorious.

The ministerial arrangement is not yet completed.

October 31.

The duke of Portland died yesterday af- ternoon, aged 73, shortly after the opera- tion of the stone was performed. His el- dest son, the marquis of Tichfield succeeds him as duke of Portland.

It is said orders have been sent for Lord Wellington's return, and it is hoped he will take the office for foreign affairs.

Letters from Paris of the 27th mention that Bonaparte returned there the preced- ing day. (Doubtful.)

We have now but little doubt of a peace between Austria and France. The condi- tions of the treaty are yet unknown; they are studiously concealed.

DUBLIN, November 6.

The Danish privateers are called in, in consequence of the remonstrances of the Russian minister.

The terms of the treaty are said to be fa- vorable to Austria. Francis remains empe- ror and the Hungarians would not withdraw their allegiance from him. Bonaparte has not made such a peace as he wanted, and is determined, if possible, to keep the terms secret.

TO PARENTS.

The annexed cases of cures performed by HAMILTON'S
CELEBRATED WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

(Selected from a very numerous list.) ARE presented as indubitable proof of the excellence and safety of this valuable specific,
for destroying worms in the human stomach and intestines.

From Mr. Benjamin Williams, No. 30, Baltimore street, two doors above south Gay-street.

I have a son six years of age, who for four years past, has been generally in a very unhealthy state, particularly in summer; frequently afflicted with alarming convulsion fits, the whole of his little frame wasted fast, his breath foetid, and almost constant itching at the nose was excited, with other alarming symptoms. During the course of the above period, the advice and attendance of three of the most eminent physicians in Baltimore were successively procured. Each of these gentlemen, in his turn, declared worms to be the cause of the child's disorder, and exhausted his skill in attempting to expel them. Pink root, steel filings, with a variety of other medicines, were administered without the least success. It was once pronounced impossible for the child to live many hours.

I had heard of your Worm Destroying Lo-zenges, but with many others did not think highly of so cheap a medicine, until a gentleman of my acquaintance (Mr. Wm. S. Moore, auctioneer) in whose family they had been used with good effect, advised me to make trial of them; I accordingly gave my son a dose agreeable to directions, which soon expelled eight large worms, some of them about eight inches in length; a second dose brought away four more of similar size; a third dose being administered, no worms appeared. The child recovered and now enjoys a good state of health.

BENJAMIN WILLIAMS.

AFFIDAVIT.

Michael Duffy, residing at No. 47, Walkea street, Fell's Point, in the city of Baltimore voluntarily maketh oath that the following statement is just and true:

In the beginning of May last, my three children, a boy of seven, and two girls the one five, and the other three years of age were taken very ill, nearly at the same time, of a common fever, as I then supposed; but was soon convinced the disorder was caused by worms. They were frequently troubled with convulsion fits, and violent startings in their sleep, and with almost continual vomiting and purging, particularly the youngest. I made immediate application to a physician of the city, and his medicines were administered with a view to success, which only increased our disappointment. The children grew daily worse, and I was absolutely without hopes of their recovery. The youngest soon appeared almost devoid of sensation, and scarcely an inhabitant of this world. In this distressing moment I was told that Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges had performed many cures in cases equally desperate. I immediately purchased a box, and gave each of them a dose, which in a few hours produced the most desirable effects. The eldest voided a great number of very large worms, and the second thousands of small ones, many of them not a quarter of an inch—in the youngest they seemed to be consumed, and had the appearance of skin and slimy matter. I repeated the dose agreeable to the paper of directions, and they all speedily recovered a good state of health, which they still enjoy, though 5 months have nearly elapsed, since they were on the borders of the grave, and the death of the whole seemed to be inevitable.

ber, 1799.

TO H. LEE.

Some time last spring I was afflicted with loss of appetite, giddiness in the head, fever, and great debility, so that I could scarcely walk. In this distressing situation I took many things, but without benefit. An acquaintance in the country sent me to procure a box of Hamilton's Lozenges. Curiosity prompted me to read the directions, where I found my complaint exactly described by the doctor. I immediately sent for another box of the Lozenges, and took one dose, which brought away a large quantity of worms, and I felt greatly relieved. Encouraged by this, I took another dose, which was attended with the happiest effects, as it relieved me entirely, and am now in a better state of health than for a considerable time and nose, and about the seat—convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes a privation of speech—irregular appetite, sometimes lothing food and sometimes voracious—purging with slimy and foetid stools—vomiting—large and hard belly—pains and sickness at the stomach—pains in the head and thigh, with fumes of spirits—slow fever, with small and irregular pulse—a dry cough—excessive thirst—sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

Prevention better than Cure.

In cases of head ache, foul stomach, and for removing superfluous bile, perhaps no remedy has been discovered superior to LEE'S HAHN'S ANTIBILIOUS PILLS.
Which for 10 years past have been attended with the greatest success. The testimony of many respectable persons in our southern sea ports has been adduced who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy during the prevalence of malignant fevers, has preserved their health after experiencing alarming symptoms of fever.

Certificate of Wm. Devenny.

During the last nine years I have been in the habit of using Hahn's Antibilious Pills, prepared by the late Mr. Lee, whenever colds, head ache, or costiveness have rendered medicine necessary; in these cases a single dose has uniformly removed my head ache, and has generally been found sufficient to remove every symptom of a cold, if taken on its first appearance. Induced by the benefit I have received, I have for years past recommended them to many of my friends, and I have the pleasure to inform you, they have invariably succeeded in removing the above complaints.

is just come to hand and is ready for inspection at the store of the subscriber, in King-street, and with Mr. Triplett, at the coffee-house.

Fully aware of the impositions that have been practised upon the public by strangers soliciting subscriptions from distant places;
the Editors invite their examination of a Work perhaps the most useful, entertaining as well as extensive in its kind that has ever been undertaken in any country. And they flatter themselves that the American will by no means shrink from a comparison with the London edition, tho' offered at six dollars per Vol. less.

This number may be considered as a fair specimen of the execution of the work, and will be left a short time for examination, before the 2d number is put to press. After this the subscription will be raised to $2 25 each number; and but a few more copies printed than are sufficient to supply the subscribers, that the early patrons of this valuable Work may have a decided advantage—subsequent applications may therefore come too late.

It is also the intention of the Editors to annex to the last number a complete list of the names of the subscribers as the patrons and encouragers of useful knowledge, the arts and literature of the United States.

Subscriptions are received by the subscriber.

FOR SALE,

The following VALUABLE PROPERTY,
A TRACT OF LAND.

CONTAINING 1600 acres, more or less, called and known by the name of Buffalo Marsh, lying within 12 miles of Winchester, in the county of Frederick, in the state of Virginia. On about 900 acres of this tract there are several very well improved farms tenanted for life or lives, the balance free of all incumbrance, including an excellent mer-chan, mill built with stone, the whole yielding an annual rent of about 800 dollars. Much of this tract is very fertile, well watered, and all abundance of timber. It is generally rolling, but part of it is hilly and stony, chiefly of lime stone. It will be laid off in suit purchasers.

Another tract, called Hollis's Marsh, lying in the county of Westmoreland containing about 2300 acres, bordering on the river Potomac, adjoining the Stratford estate, and the late residence of Richard Lee, esq. of Chantilly. On the estate are a number of farms and tenants at will. Part of this land is extremely fertile, and all of it as good as the lands generally are in that part of the country. The Marsh affords excellent range for stock, and is happily situated for fish and fowls of which that river abounds, and must be a desirable estate to any person who may choose to reside in that part of the country.
It will however be laid off to suit purchasers.

The above lands are held by deeds of purchase duly recorded in the general court.

Another tract containing 992 acres, lying in the county of Berkeley, adjoining the residence of Rawleigh Colston, esq. of which about 660 acres is leased for the balance of the life of an aged man, the rest remained at will. This land is situated in what is called the big bend of Potomac, and borders on it. In point of fertility it is esteemed superior to none in that part of the state and is held by deed from James Marshall, esq.

Seven other tracts containing 1000 acres each, adjoining each other in the county of Mason, within a few miles of the Ohio, between the two Kanawha's on the waters of Sandy Creek, which runs through a considerable part of it. It adjoins the lands of general Washington, and the late Benjamin Harrison, jun. esq. A large portion of it is rich bottom and the upland of very good quality. It is held under the original patent by deeds duly recorded in the general court.

Five full & complete Shares
in the Disinial Swamp Company.

Upwards of 16,000 acres of Lands, being very old military rights, lying in the states of Ohio, Kentucky and the Indiana territory, chiefly patented in my own name and ready to be shown.

A more particular description of the foregoing property may be seen by applying to Mr. Thomas Taylor, of Richmond, who is authorized to make contracts, or to myself in Alexandria. The titles are all undoubtedly and the terms proposed are, one fourth in cash at the time of conveyance, the balance in three instalments, the last two to be on interest from the date. Any species of the public stock and of the different Banks in the United States of Insurance Companies—of the Potomac Bridge and Turnpike Companies will be received in payment according to their fair value. Ground rents in the city of Richmond and town of Alexandria, or Houses and Lots, will likewise be received in payment according to such rates as may be agreed upon.

nearly two thousand acres, and possesses many advantages which entitle it to the attention
